

~ Miss Aly ~

Hi Dancers, I'm Miss Aly! I've been dancing for nine years and bring my love of performance to every class I teach. While I enjoy many dance styles, my heart belongs to musical theater and jazz, where I can combine my love of movement with storytelling. I'm a proud theater nerd and lifelong Disney fan. I've had the magical experience of participating in Dance the Magic twice, dancing down Main Street, U.S.A. in Disneyland. I believe dance should be fun, expressive, and filled with joy, and I love inspiring my students to shine both on and off the stage.
