

~ Kylie Beebout ~

Kylie is a third generation dancer at Arlington School of Dance. Yes, her grandma and mom also trained and danced here. Kylie began dancing in 1st grade, and has trained and developed in Ballet, Jazz, Lyrical, Contemporary, Musical Theater and her favorite of course being Tap. She has been a part of Arlington School of Dance's Performance Team, and has hit the stage in locations including Arlington, Lights of Christmas, Evergreen State Fair, AquaSox Stadium, Leavenworth, Seattle Center, Universal Studios Hollywood, and Disneyland. With Dance the Magic, she attended workshops led by Disney performers and choreographers. Kylie is excited for her third year on staff, continuing to share her passion for Tap with her students!

